The local committee has already chartered the boat for the Saturday outing on the gulf. There are more than fifty pastors of the churches of the city who have already asked for visiting educators as speakers in their various churches on Sunday morning, July 29, and all have arranged to take their entire congregations to the Fair Grounds auditorium for the final address of the week by Doctor R. R. Moten, Principal of Tuskegee Institute. Indications are that Doctor Moten will speak to ten thousand people on this afternoon.

FROM ONE OF OUR BOYS.

Justice for the Negro.
Chicago, June 28.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—"To make the world safe for democracy." This is the tocsin, this the battle cry. Never before has war been waged for a cause so altruistic and humanitarian. Why then should we, despite the high sounding and idealistic platitudes that constitute our doctrine of national life and our casus belli, as well deliberately and ingenuitously attempt to alienate and stultify the loyalty of our Negro compatriots? Every edition of the press heralds some new discrimination, some added onus. At a time like this is it either sane, logical or fair?

In a nation of no democratic pretensions would not practices of this nature be censurable to an extreme degree, and in a nation of such alleged liberality as ours are they not unspeakable? Are we not giving the lie to ourselves and fostering the very evils we so vigorously and rhetorically decry?

Where is our much vaunted sense of fair play? Where also is our reason? Have we, in our wave of righteous wrath against "Prussian oppression," forgotten the solemn warning of "a house divided against itself cannot stand?"

May some one, actuated by pure and noble patriotism, arise and fearlessly and trenchantly show us the fallacy and hypocrisy of our position. And in the end may we at home see in operation the theories for the establishment of which abroad we gave so freely and unstintingly of our best blood and substance.

PAUL V. CROSTHWAITE,

GOOD SAMARITANS OF GEORGIA DEDICATE NEW BUILDING.

Athens, Ga., July 4.—Five thousand negroes were here today to attend dedication of new headquarters building of the Improved Order of Samaritans which is just completed at a cost of $35,000 all of which is paid. It is a modern office building of brick with two stores on first floor, twelve suits of offices on the second floor and an auditorium on the third floor and was designed and constructed by negroes. B. J. Davis, of Atlanta, well known in negro fraternal circles, delivered the principal address and urged the white people to give his race better treatment and referred to lynching and insufficient school facilities as some of the causes of negro migration.

With millions of Negroes willing and ready to die for their country in these strenuous times, we should let the world know that they are not to die the death of rats as was the case in East St. Louis. Let some one who has the power show the world that when we sing:

"My country 'tis of thee,

Sweet land of liberty—
our words are words of truth and not simple poetry, jingled to rhythm, meaningless and empty.
